

HAWAIIAN RIDE FOR YOUTH 2009

10 – 14 March 2009

SUPPORT CREW CODE OF CONDUCT

The Ride for Youth Code of Conduct requires that Support Crew Members:

- As an individual who is assisting in the control or involved in contributing to the conduct of or organising or managing RFY you will do your best to ensure that you will not inflict harm or injury to fellow participants or their property intentionally.
- Must hold a valid Drivers License
- Must behave with honesty and integrity when participating in the Ride for Youth, treating everyone with respect and courtesy, and without harassment;
- Must at all times behave in a way that upholds Youth Focus' values and the integrity of Youth Focus;
- Must adequately inform themselves of the role Youth Focus plays in the community and the types of programs offered to young people;
- During the event, must act as reasonably directed by the event director or his/her nominated deputy. The Youth Focus CEO is automatically nominated as deputy.
- Must wear the sponsored event apparel as provided during the event and at other suitable opportunities to assist in raising awareness of the event and of the sponsors' involvement.

All Support Crew must conform to the Code of Conduct, failure to abide by these will result in the Support Crew member being prevented from participating in the ride.

I
(Name)

of.....
(Address)

Hereby confirm that I have read the above rules and regulations and agree to abide by these. I further understand and accept that failure to abide by these rules and regulations may result in the committee determining my participation in the event. In the case where a rider's participation is determined they will forfeit all monies that have been paid.

Signed:..... Date:.....